

Massachusetts Education Policy Fellowship Program At Northeastern University

EPFP was Established in Massachusetts in 1974

A Program of the Institute for Educational Leadership, Washington, DC

Inviting Applications for the 2008-09 Fellowship Year

The Massachusetts EPFP is a ten-month development program for mid-career professionals in education and related fields. Fellows in the program develop skills and knowledge in the areas of leadership, public policy, and networking. Massachusetts EPFP is part of a network of fifteen state programs sponsored by the Institute for Educational Leadership in Washington, DC.

Massachusetts EPFP is an opportunity to:

- Develop leadership skills and learn about your leadership potential;
- Engage in education policy discussions with experts in the field;
- Create a network with local, state, and national fellows and alumni.

The program year begins with an overnight retreat in late September. Fellows meet twice each month, from 5-8 PM, in dinner meetings from October to May. Meetings include guest speakers and discussion among fellows on topics related to leadership and public policy. Massachusetts participants also meet with over 200 fellows from other states at two national meetings:

- National Leadership Forum in Phoenix, AZ – December 7-10, 2008
- Washington Policy Seminar in Washington, DC – April 1-4, 2009

The deadline for applications is August 29, 2008.

Please visit our website at www.epfp.neu.edu for application materials and more information.
